

March 14, 2007 NEERC Meeting

Special thanks to Dave Corbett for a terrific presentation on his new book, "Portfolio Life - New Paths to Work, Purpose and Passion Over 50". All of us in attendance were inspired by Dave's message as to how to prepare for our future, which (thankfully) should have many more productive years ahead than ever before. Of course, that is always a good news story...

If anyone is interested in purchasing a copy of Dave's excellent book, Dave has a special website set up @ www.portfoliolifebook.com .

Pencil in your calendars, our next meeting is tentatively scheduled for May 23rd @ the famous Doubletree in Waltham. Another exciting speaker will be announced shortly.

By the way, check out the revised www.StraubeAssociates.com for up-to-date NEERC information.

Best regards,

Stan Straube
